

Around the Region to Old Bar with Port Bus

Friday 1st April 2021

Old Bar is a coastal town in New South Wales, Australia in Mid-Coast Council. It lies around 16 kilometres east of Taree on the Mid North Coast, and around 315 kilometres north of Sydney. Old Bar is on the southern side of the mouth of the Manning River.

Moorland Cottage

The cafe has a wonderful garden setting with a beautiful indoor option too. This is a great place to stop for a break off the highway. They are renowned for the "Best Scones on the Coast" as the history is that of a bakehouse and later a Devonshire tea house, but they now have a modern, well priced menu, with real espresso coffee. Gluten free offerings are available. Our morning tea consist of urn tea & coffee and 1 x scone.

Manning Point

Manning Point is a small village located at the mouth of the Manning River in New South Wales, Australia. Lying on Mitchells Island, it lies opposite the town of Harrington. It is 26 kilometres east of Taree on the Mid North Coast. At the 2006 census, Manning Point had a population of 228.

Club Old Bar

Club Old Bar is proud to be "The Hub of the Community" by supporting all local sporting and community groups. They strive to provide an exceptionally satisfying, comfortable and safe place to meet. Here

Taree Craft Centre

Located in a lovely historical building, Taree Craft Cottage displays and sells a diverse range of quality items handcrafted by their talented members. This is the ideal place to shop for that perfect gift for any occasion. There are also two large classrooms where regular craft classes are held as well as the Cottage Cafe serving home baked cheesecake, biscuits and quiches and good espresso coffee - eat in or take away.
