

Blake O'Connor & Sinead Burgess

with Port Bus to Laurieton United Services Club

Saturday 13th February 2021

Blake O'Connor and Sinead Burgess team up for an unforgettable night of music. As they each share stories their songs resonate with a fresh approach in this intimate acoustic setting.

This year Blake took home the prestigious Best New Talent of The Year Golden Guitar at the Tamworth Country Music Festival. Having performed in Nashville, UK and all across Australia Blake is a seasoned songwriter, guitarist and performer. Sinead Burgess is a Nashville-based Australian singer-songwriter and is well-known to audiences as a guitar slinger, one-woman show stopper whose solo sets and bell bottoms nail a crowd with more intensity than most full bands. She had toured with some of music's biggest acts (James Bay, The Script, Don McLean) and collaborated with high profile songwriters and producers around the world.

This will be a night to remember with a show that takes you on a journey through the eyes of two remarkable artists.
