Tour Summary:

Post Truth - Brexit - Trump - Royal Family - Stolen History

One of the world's great minds brings it back home, to challenge fellow Australians and to explain what is happening in and to the world.

Experience a provocative, insightful, and witty evening with international human rights judge and barrister Geoffrey Robertson QC, as he analyses Brexit and Trump in a post-truth era and calls for Australia's constitutional regeneration after the bushfires. He will explain what is really happening to the royal family and to Julian Assange, how fake news distorts democracy and why the rich will inherit the earth.

This is a show that will give you an insight into Geoffrey Robertson's life and famous cases, and his current crusade to restore cultural property to the people – including Indigenous Australians – from whom it has been stolen.
