

Composers in Exile

with Port Bus to the Jetty Memorial Theatre, Coffs Harbour

Friday 10th December 2021

Peter Coleman Wright & Nexus Quartet

Composers in exile is a musical and theatrical exploration of one of the darkest times in European history. As the Weimar Republic descended into chaos, the people escaped into hedonistic abandon and an explosion of creativity. Under this easy cover, the Nazi Party slowly slithered into power. With Hitler's ascent, Germany's greatest composers fled to seek freedom in the four corners of the world.

Peter Coleman-Wright and Nexus Quartet take audiences on a musical journey following these exiles from Berlin and Vienna to New York and beyond with a mixture of political songs from the turbulent times prior to World War 11, the musical theatre of Weill and the cabaret and song from Stolz and Schreker. These songs capture the spirit of the times: defiant, soulful, and searching, but also capable of moments of exuberant joy and hope.

Itinerary: Pickups will commence by 15:30. The approximate arrival at Indian Flavour Authentic Indian Cuisine for dinner is 17:40. Departing by 18:40 for Jetty Memorial Theatre. The 90-minute show (including interval) finishes at 21:00, make your way to the bus and we will load & go. Bring your pillow and blanket along for a snooze on your way home.
