

Creative Comboyne

with Port Bus to Comboyne

Saturday 8th October 2022

Tour Summary:

Gardenista is a festival celebrating the rich diversity of Comboyne's creative landscape. It includes the famous garden walks in beautiful private gardens spread across the plateau, food, wine, and art. It is a day to enjoy the beauty of Comboyne plateau and the creativity of its residents.

The Gardens:

Windrush - Home of Robyn and Richard Lyon, Windrush features an historic garden of mature trees, formal rose garden, and extensive plantings of cool climate shrubs and flowers.

Mistover - Home of Nola and Colin Stumm the Mistover garden is set over 2 acres alongside a beautiful lake and waterfall. Many sculptures set amongst the garden add a delightful element of whimsy.

Waterfall - Home of Margie and Gordon Burch, Waterfall is set on a dramatic hillside avocado farm. Extensive vistas add to the charm and splendour of this beautiful garden.

Te Papa - Home of Helen and Cam Penman, Te Papa is a beautiful garden set on the northern edge of the Comboyne plateau. In Helen's own words; "I am a plant lover's gardener and a collector and I am always pushing the boundary by trying things that shouldn't really grow where I plant them".

Ticoba - Home of Penny and Ernst Tideman, Ticoba is famous for its annual public blueberry picking and avocado farm. The garden features long green-tea hedges, tree lined avenues and stunning views east to the ocean.

High Point – Home of Marion and Ian Lawrence, High Point has been lovingly carved from the bush using materials sourced on-site as well as re-cycled and re-purposed materials from the surrounding region. The highly productive vegetable gardens supplies the Port Anglican soup kitchen in Port Macquarie.

Stella Vista – Home of Georgia and Tim Connell, Stella Vista sits on the edge of the Comboyne escarpment looking north-west. Next to the house garden is a Star Anise orchard.

Larrikins Lockup - Larrikins Lockup is an historical garden in Comboyne Village featuring a garden and woodwork centre, as well as the refurbished goal from 1905. Beautiful lawns and picnic area are set amongst large mature trees next to the Thone River. A must-see on your visit to Comboyne!
