

Autumn Gardens

with Port Bus

Sunday 30th April to Wednesday 3rd May 2023

Tour Summary:

All Aboard Port Bus for our 2023 Autumn Gardens Tour.

Our first Garden is award-winning Hunter Region Botanic Gardens which is managed and maintained by volunteers for the enjoyment and education of the people of the Hunter region and visitors from Australia and overseas. The beautiful gardens cater for everyone from serious horticultural enthusiasts to students undertaking educational school trips and families wanting to enjoy a day outdoors. Next stop, the Secret Garden & Nursery. The Secret Garden is a not-for-profit 'Community Hub' situated on 15 acres at the Western Sydney University campus in Richmond. The focus of the garden is to provide a space that draws community groups, organisations, and individuals from all walks of life together in a welcoming environment that enables them to flourish and grow.

Onto Retford Park which is a heritage must-see in the Southern Highlands. We visit this beautiful property, including its magnificent gardens, and a guided tour of the house.

Our Private Gardens of Monaro tour meets at the first garden, Hazeldean at 10.00am sharp. You will spend around one and a half hours at Hazeldean with morning tea and tour of the garden, before moving on to the other gardens, Curry Flat for lunch and then afternoon tea at Shirley, spending around one and a half hours at each. Our day finishes at 4.30pm.
