Itinerary:

Day 1: Wednesday 1st: Door to door pickups will commence around 09:30. Heading out of Kew by 10:15 we will stop @ Heatherbrae for lunch (at your own cost) (choose from: Heatherbrae Pies, Hungry Jacks, KFC, or Guzman & Gomez). Into Haymarket to our accommodation, we check in around 15:30. Sit back, freshen up or go for a wander. Dinner tonight is at The Great Southern Bar Restaurant. Pre-ordered from five meals at 17:00. We will wander over to the Capitol Theatre around 18:30 for our showtime of 19:30. The Capitol Theatre is a heritage-listed theatre designed by Henry White and John Ebersson and built 1893 to 1928.

Day 2: Thursday 2nd: After breakfast our 07:30 we will checkout and board by 08:45. Last night we saw the Princess now it is your turn to feel like one in Mooney Money at the Broken Bay Pearl Farm. It is NSWs only pearl farm and is open to the public for guests to experience Australia's incredible pearling history through the eyes of the pioneers and their stories. Experience first-hand the provenance and authenticity of Sydney's best kept secret - the Akoya pearl. Broken Bay Pearl Farm is a working pearl farm. We leave on the on the scenic Hawkesbury River for our tour. You will have the opportunity to purchase pearls from the very waters they are grown, see the pearling and aquaculture display. Now it is time for a little retail therapy and grab some lunch (at your own expense) at Westfield Tuggerah before we head on home. Drop offs should commence by 18:10.
