KANGAROO ISLAND & GREAT OCEAN RD 11 Days | 10 Nights Sat 9th to Mon 18th March

Kangaroo Island, because of its variety and abundance of wildlife, has often been described as a "zoo without fences". Kangaroo Island's first official settlers arrived in July 1836 aboard the Duke of York. For the first free settlement in Australia, Kingscote was dogged by the lack of water and suitable building timber. After 4 years it was abandoned in favour of Adelaide. Today Kangaroo Island is one of Australia's best known and loved holiday destinations. After suffering from serious summer fires, the resilient tourism industry is up and running again and welcoming visitors to their special place. Most of the local infrastructure was spared. Unfortunately, the Flinders Chase Visitors Centre was destroyed along with some properties at the western end of the Island but mostly KI is open for business and would welcome your visit. In the second half of our tour, we explored Victoria's Shipwreck Coast and the Great Ocean Road. The Great Ocean Road is one of the best coastal drives in the world! Built to honour the servicemen and women of World War One, the road extends more than 300 kilometres along some of the best coastal scenery this country has to offer. We visit Warrnambool on what is called the "Shipwreck Coast" and then explore the southern coast along the Port Campbell National Park and the Otway National Park. Join us on this stunning tour to two of Australia's iconic destinations – Kangaroo Island and The Great Ocean Road.
