Depicted on the side silo is Winx, a retired champion Australian thoroughbred racehorse and her famous rider Hugh Bowman, who was born in Dunedoo. Also featured is Chris Waller, Winx's trainer. Side two silo displays the local fauna and flora. We continue through to Merriwa where we look at the Merriwa Art Silos. The mural depicts a flock of sheep wearing red socks in a canola field, why the red socks? The artist pays homage to the town's beloved annual Festival of the Fleeces. We have arranged lunch at the Royal hotel Denman.

Now onto Dundullimal Homestead. It is located on the land of 'the Dundullimal' who were part of the Wiradjuri nation whose knowledge and experience of the area spans thousands of years. The land became the head station of a large squatting run in 1836, and the house was built in the early 1840s, soon becoming a key property when droving cattle and sheep to different stations, meat works and markets across the nation. The Homestead has survived in a near unaltered condition since its construction and is now the only tangible evidence of the early squatters run. The timber church, which can still be seen today, was built in the 1870s and has connections to Saint Mary MacKillop. It's now time to start our Zoofari Experience! @ Taronga Western Plains Zo o.
