

THE BLACK CROWES

with Port Bus to Newcastle Entertainment Centre

Friday 10th April 2026

The Black Crowes bring their acclaimed live show to Newcastle Entertainment Centre on Friday 10 April 2026, marking their return to regional Australia after more than a decade. Led by brothers Chris and Rich Robinson, the band continues to captivate audiences with their signature mix of soulful vocals, gritty guitar work and blues-inspired rock. Their latest album, Happiness Bastards, has earned international praise and a GRAMMY nomination for Best Rock Album, reaffirming their position as one of the most respected names in rock.

This Newcastle performance will feature a powerful selection of fan favourites — from Hard to Handle and Jealous Again to Remedy and She Talks to Angels — alongside new material that reflects the band's ongoing creative evolution.

Returning to Australia after their 2022 tour and Bluesfest for the first time since 2008, The Black Crowes promise an unforgettable night of timeless rock and roll.
