

An extraordinary tale of love, life and music

A joyous, life-affirming adventure on the rugged Cornish coast, with 15 actor-musicians playing 30 instruments. London and New York fell in love. Sydney is next.

From Olivier Award-winning writers Jethro Compton and Darren Clark come The Curious Case of Benjamin Button, a radiant new musical that reimagines F. Scott Fitzgerald's iconic story. Set in a rugged Cornish fishing village, the production is an extraordinary celebration of love and life.

After capturing the hearts of audiences in London and New York and winning three Olivier Awards — Best New Musical, Best Actor in a Musical and Outstanding Musical Contribution — the show makes its Australian premiere ahead of a national tour. Expect exhilarating live music and theatrical storytelling at its most magical.
