International pop icon Belinda Carlisle will bid a celebratory farewell to Australian fans with a national run of dates saluting four decades of hits on the aptly titled G'Day & Goodbye Tour.

One of the most distinctive voices of the 1980s and beyond, Belinda will take fans on a musical journey through her extraordinary career – from her much-loved solo hits all the way back to her early days as frontwoman of pioneering all-female band The Go-Go's.
Joining Belinda on this special farewell tour as guests will be beloved Australian indie-pop favourites The Mavis's. Renowned for their infectious energy, quirky charm and classic hits including Cry and Naughty Boy, The Mavis's will bring their unique brand of Australian pop to each show, making these concerts an even more unforgettable celebration of live music.

Having cultivated an enduring love affair with Australian audiences over the decades, these shows will mark the final time Belinda tours Down Under – a celebration of her timeless music, her devoted fans and the joy of live performance. "Australia has always held such a special place in my heart," says Belinda. "The fans here have supported me from the very beginning so this tour will be one big thank-you! A celebration of the music, memories and magic we've shared."

This is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to farewell one of pop music's most enduring stars and enjoy a spectacular evening featuring two iconic acts that have each left an indelible mark on generations of music lovers.
